Per Edvardum Millingtonum, Bibliopol. Lond.

CATALOGUES are given by Mr. Mortlock in Westminster-Hall. Mr. Partridge at Charing-Cross. Mr. Bentley in Covent-Garden. Mr. Wilkinson in Fleet-street. Mr. Miller at the Acorn in St. Paul's Church-yard. Mr. Aylmer in Cornhill. Mr. H. Clement in Oxon. Mr. Hall in Cambridg, 169$\frac{0}{1}$.

To the READER.

SInce Prefaces to Auction-Catalogues have been of late cenſured more cuſtomary than inſtructive, and that the Buyers ſet up for better Judges of the Editions, uſe, ſcarcity of the Books expoſed to Sale, than the Men of the Profeſſion, I am reſolved to humour the Age, to ſay as they ſay, to let them believe as they pleaſe, to think as they liſt. The Title informs you the Library (except the Rabbinical Part, generouſly given away by his Will) was Dr. Cud worth's, late Maſter of Chriſt-Colledg in Cambridg, which by ſever. Learned and Knowing Perſons hath been eſteemed an excellent and valuable Collection, amongſt which, great variety of Books not uſually heard of, or very rarely met with, of the moſt gentile and critical ſort of Learning: It's therefore reckoned a favour to the Auctioneer, an Act of Prudence in every Gentleman to view before-hand what he hath a mind to buy, to which purpoſe conſtant Attendance will be given for three whole days before the Sale, from Nine in the Morning to Six in the Evening.

Conditions of Sale.

I. HE who bids moſt is the Buyer, and if any Difference ariſe, the ſaid Book or Books ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again, and the Sale decided by the Sales-Man.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, are perfect, for ought we know; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen will be pleaſed to give in their Names and Places of Abode after their buying any Book or Books, paying alſo 5 s. in the Pound in part of the Book or Books they ſhall buy (if demanded) and ſo proportionably for all leſſer Sums.

IV. That no Perſon is to bid leſs than 6 d. a time under a Pound, and 1 s. above a Pound for Folios, 4 d. for Quartos, 2 d. for 8°, 12°, 24°, the firſt bidding left to the pleaſure of the Company.

V. That the Money for the Book or Books bought is to be paid within Fourteen Days after the Auction is ended, at the place of Sale, where the Books ſhall be ready to be delivered to them or their Order.

This Auction will be held at Roll's Coffee-houſe on Monday the ſecond of February, 169⅞ from Two of the Clock in the Afternoon to Eight, and ſo continue daily till all are ſold; where Books will be expoſed to view three Days before the Sale begin

Quorum Auctio habebitur Londini in Ædibus vulgo dictis Roll's Auction-Houſe in Petty-Canon Hall in Petty-Canon Alley, in Cœmiterio D. Pauli, viceſſimo primo Die Februarii, $169\frac{4}{5}$.

Per Edoardum Millingtonum, Bibliopolam Lond.

Catalogues may be had Mr. Kettilby at the Biſhop's Head in St. Paul's Church Yard. Wills Coffee-Houſe adjoining to the Court of Requeſts. Mr. Graves in Cambridg. Mr. Shurley in Oxon. And at the Place of Sale, $169\frac{4}{5}$.

To the Reader.

TO describe the Books in the ensuing Pages, is really in other words to inform the Learned World, that whatever are valuable and useful in Divinity, choice in Philology, desirable in Classical and Critical Learning, are therein contained. What can be more acceptable, than an entire View of all the Latin and Greek Fathers of the first Paris Editions, to be entertained with the whole Sett of the Poets, Philologers, Lexicographers; of all the Historians Greek and Latin; as also of the Latin of other Nations and of our own, almost a compleat Collection: And these Correct Copies of the most Learned and Celebrated Printers of Europe, viz. Aldus, Hervagius, Gryphius, Colinæus, Vascosanus, Macæus; and the whole Family of the Stephens's, Sonnius, and Morellus, Elzevir's Antient and Modern, &c. All which considered, I may, without Vanity say, that as they were at great Expence one Age in collecting, perhaps if once dispersed, another would not retrieve them.

The Second Part will consist of the fine Greek Books of Robert and Henry Stephens, Aldus, and the Florentine Typographers; with the Duplicates of many Curious Books, Greek and Latin, &c. Also Libri Philosophici, Medici, Mathematici, Juridici, Italici, Hispanici, Gallici, in large Numbers. Together with all the significant Books hitherto printed in the English Tongue. Catalogues of which, after the Sale of this, will be in due time published and dispersed to all Gentlemen, &c.

By your Humble Servant, E. MILLINGTON.

This Sale will begin on Thursday the 21*st* of February, 1695. at Roll's Auction-House in Petty-Canon Hall in Petty-Canon Alley, in St. Paul's Church-Yard, from Four exactly to Eight in the Evening, continuing daily till all the Books are sold.

Conditions

Conditions of Sale.

I. THAT he that bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, the Book or Books ſhall be expoſed to ſale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe, (before taken away) the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III That all Gentlemen, &c. will be pleaſed to give in their Names and Places of Aboad, after their buying any Book or Books; paying alſo five Shillings in the Pound in part of the Book or Books they ſhall buy, (if demanded) and ſo proportionably for all leſſer Sums, otherwiſe the Book or Books ſold ſhall be expoſed to ſale again.

IV. That no Perſon is to bid leſs than 6 d. a time under a Pound for Folio's; 4 d. for Quarto's; 2 d. for 8*o.* 12*o.* 24*o.* the firſt Bidding left to the Pleaſure of the Company.

V. That the Money for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid within one Week after the Auction is ended, at the Place of Sale, where the Books ſhall be ready to be delivered to them, or their Order.

The Books may be viewed one Week before the Sale, from Nine to Twelve, and from Two to Six.

Any Gentlemen, &c. may be pleaſed to ſend their Commiſſions to London, directed to the Place of Sale, for any Books contained in the Catalogue, and ſhall have them faithfully executed by their Servant E. M.

TO THE READER.

THis Catalogue conſiſts of a great Number of many good Books, and of as few bad as any Study that hath been expoſed to Sale by Auction, and hath the advantage of curious binding, and generally of the beſt Editi-ons. Mr. Skinner's produces a fair ſhow of moſt of our Engliſh Hiſtorians ancient and modern, in the ſeveral Languages they have been Writ, and contains a compleat Set of the beſt Books of the Law, which was his Profeſſion: beſides a great many foreign Hiſtories and French Pleadings, and Laws of other Nations; of all which he made a good uſe, in attaining an exquiſite ſound Judgment, and moſt comprehenſive knowledge of the Engliſh Laws. Beſides theſe, he Collected many other Authors of uſe to a general Schollar, which his Books in Divinity, Claſſick Authors, numbers of uſeful Lexicons ſpeak him to be; who was ſo well acquainted with every Book in his Study, wherein he ſpent too much time, with greater delight, then conveniency to his health. This is an exact Catalogue of all his Books he left when he Died, together with ſome Law-Books that he made uſe of, as common place Books with his own large, and painful, additions and Judicious References in the Margin, which makes them of greater value then the Books themſelves, which may be ſeen in Roll's Abridgment, Cook on Littleton, Yelverton's Reports, &c. With Annotations on ſeveral other Law-Books, and others contained in this Collection.

* Biibloth. Nobiliſſim. Part. Tert. ſold in June 21. 1695.

Eſquire Hampden's 2d Part, or Appendix Bibliothecæ * Nobiliſſimæ, partis tertiæ, contains Books of prime Note in Divinity, Philology, Hiſtory, Gr. Lat. of Coins, Statues, of Architecture, and Painting, fine Sculptures (curiouſly bound, many large Paper.) Amongſt his Theologici, (a Large if not Compleat Collection of the Socinian Writers pro & con, with MSS. Remarques on the Writers of both ſides) made at great expence for his own reading, of their Genuine Editions, (which perhaps may never appear again in any Catalogue.)

To conclude, its deſired that all the Gentlemen the Buyers would take a diſtinct view of them the Week before the Sale, where they ſhall be treated with all imaginable Candor and Civility, by their Humble Servant,

EDW. MILLINGTON.

This Sale will begin on Monday the 13 of February, 169$\frac{8}{9}$. at the Temple-Change-Coffeebouſe in Fleet-ſtreet, from Four in the Afternoon to Eight, continuing Daily till all the Books are Sold.

Conditions of S A L E.

CATALOGUES are given by Mr. Clement Bookſeller in Oxford. Mr. Kettilby at the Biſhop's Head in St. Paul's Church-yard, and by Mr. Thurlburne in Trumpington-ſtreet, Cambridg. 1697.

To the Reader.

GENTLEMEN,

THE sale of the Library of the Reverend and Learned Dr. Bernard amongst you, is designed to entertain and also to oblige you, because it contains numbers of Books unusual in all its parts, that very rarely appear, if at any time are to be found in the Booksellers Shops. For the difficulty of procuring, and expence of getting scarce Books, no Person can be truly sensible of, but he that hath made a Collection for himself. His being often beyond the Seas as Agent for other Learned Persons, and buying for himself, gave him an opportunity of purchasing what was choice and valuable, as will be evident in the perusal of the Catalogue. The Libri Orientales appear to me to be considerable, and his skill in all or most of those Languages you find Books printed in, doth sufficiently manifest and evidence his great Learning. His Manuscripts Oriental, &c. left by him, among which I am informed there are some very Antient Copies not printed, are of great value, perhaps not elsewhere to be found. The Libri Impressi Collati cum codicib. MSS. & Doctiss. Virorum notis illustrati, are many of them curiously noted by great Men, and Books of general use. The whole are above 500 Volumes, designed by his Relict to be sold at a moderate Price altogether, and may be viewed in London, of which a Catalogue is designed suddenly to be printed. To conclude, the Gentlemen that design to be Buyers, are desired to view the Books at the place of Sale three days before the Time; and are also informed, that in few days after this Sale is ended, they shall be again entertained, and if possible gratified, by the selling of the Library of the Reverend and Learned Mr. Harding late of Trinity-College,

Lond. Octob. 7. 1697.

By their humble Servant,

ED. MILLINGTON.

This

This Sale will begin on Monday the 25*th of* October 1697, at a House adjoining to the North-gate, from 9 in the Morning to 11, and from One to four in the Afternoon, continuing daily till all the Books are sold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he that bids moſt is the Buyer, and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, the Book or Books ſhall be expoſed to ſale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe (before taken away) the Buyer ſhall have his choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That no Perſon is to bid leſs than 6*d* a time under a Pound for Folio's; 6*d* for Quarto's, 4*d* for 8*o*, 12*o*, 24*o*; the firſt bidding left to the pleaſure of the Company.

IV. That the fourth part of the Price of the Book or Books bought, is to be paid by the Buyer at the time of Sale, (if demanded) and that he give in his Chriſtian and Sir-Name, Degree, and of what College or Hall he is of (if a Scholar) and that the remainder of the Money be paid within ſix days after the Sale, at the place of Sale, where the Books ſhall be ready to be delivered to them or their Order.

Any Gentlemen, &c. may be pleaſed to ſend their Commiſſions from London, or elſewhere, directed to the place of Sale, for any Books contained in the Catalogue, and have them faithfully executed by their Servant E. M.

To the READER.

THIS third and laſt part, which may deſervedly be call'd by the Name it bears, (Bibliotheca Nobiliſſima) tho by a different Perſon from the two former Collected at prodigious Expence, and with incomparable Judgment, I now offer to your Peruſal. The Sales that of late have been made by different ways, have begot ſuch a commendable Itch in the Minds of ſeveral Worthy and Learned Noblemen, Gentlemen, &c after the fineſt Copies of the choiceſt Books in all Faculties, that I muſt frankly own, that to oblige theſe more eſpecially, I ſell this Noble Library. And as I may juſtifiably ſay ſo, I cannot forbear to acquaint the Buyers, that whatever hath gone before, never equall'd, and whatever ſhall ſucceed, will not excel theſe contained in this Catalogue, being for their Number as good as Europe can produce, or the whole World can preſent you with. The Divinity uſeful and Valuable, Philologici, Hiſtorici, Gr. Lat. Compleat: Critici, Claſſici, unparallel'd: Hiſtorici, Latini, of other Nations, the beſt Authors that have Writ, and of our own almoſt a perfect Repreſentation. The Spaniſh but few, but the beſt hitherto extant of that Nation: The Italian not many, but Gentile: The French Modern; conſiſting of the Works of their fam'd Stateſmen, and celebrated Wits. It's not eaſy to ſay where is the Defect of this Collection, if conſidered as made by a private Perſon for his own uſe, except in the Libris Numiſmatum, of which it's confeſs'd there is but a ſprinkling. The whole beſpeaks the curious Inclination to, diſtinct Knowledge of, accurate Inſight, (the Quondam Poſſeſſor had) into the fineſt, as well as moſt ſubſtantial parts of Learning: And when I alſo remark he was Maſter of that Knowledg theſe Helps could miniſter to him, I may fairly leave him without farther pourtraying him.

To Conclude the Character of the Catalogue, for the better Information of the Buyers, that the Copies are all clean, many extreamly beautiful, richly Bound, large Paper, Turkey-Leather, &c. the reſt generally Filleted, Gilt, and Letter'd A la mode Angleterre, A la mode Francois. A View of which, and their Qualifications, may be had for one whole Week before the Sale, from 2 to 6 every Afternoon, at Edward Millington's Warehouſe over againſt Mr. Lock's, Tobacconiſt, in St. Bartholomew-Cloſe near Little-Britain, where there is a Room Spacious for the Reception, and Airy for the freer Perſpiration of all the Candidates of Learning, and Patrons of Knowledge, that pleaſe to deſcend to breath therein, Prepared by their humble Servant,

EDWARD MILLINGTON.

FINIS.

A COURSE of MECHANICAL and EXPERIMENTAL PHILOSOPHY ; whereby any one, altho' unskill'd in Mathematical Sciences, may be able to underſtand all thoſe Phænomena of Nature, which have been diſcover'd by Geometrical Principles, or accounted for by Experiments ; and Mathematicians may be diverted in ſeeing thoſe Machines us'd, and Phyſical Operations perform'd, concerning which they have read. Given by John Theophilus Deſaguliers, M.A.F.R.S. at his Houſe in Plough Yard in Fetter Lane.

THIS Courſe conſiſts of Four Parts. In the Firſt are laid down the Principles of Mechanics and Laws of Motion, and the ſeveral Operations of Engines ſhewn.

In the Second, the Nature of Fluids is explain'd, the Laws of Hydroſtatics are rationally demonſtrated, and its Paradoxes or moſt ſurprizing Phænomena ſhewn and experimentally accounted for.

The Third Part takes in the Properties of Air, and all the Phænomena which depend upon its Preſſure and Elaſticity ; its Condenſation and Rarefaction by Engines ; the Manner how it is vitiated, and how purified ; with great Variety of Experiments upon the Air Pump.

The Fourth Part treats of Optics ; conſidering, 1ſt, Direct Viſion and Perſpective, the Nature and Affections of Light ; 2dly, Catoptrics, or reflex Viſion ; 3dly, Dioptrics, or refracted Viſion, in which the Make of the Eye is conſider'd, with the Faults of, and Helps for bad Eyes ; laſtly, Sir Iſaac Newton's Theory of Light and Colours prov'd by his Experiments, and confirm'd by ſome new ones, which may be done even by Candle-light.

N. B. The Method of this Courſe is wholly Mathematical, viz. a Chain of Propoſitions proving each other ; but inſtead of Definitions, Axioms, and Poſtulata purely Geometrical, the Experiments made at the firſt Lecture, prove the Precepts given at the ſecond, and ſo on : Things which otherwiſe wou'd be merely ſpeculative, being by this means render'd Objects of the Senſes, and better underſtood in a Month or ſix Weeks, than in a Year's cloſe Application to Books only.

A CATALOGUE of the EXPERIMENTS made uſe of in the foremention'd Courſe to prove the Precepts.

Lecture the Firſt.

THE Motion in Matter prov'd by ſome Phænomena of the Phoſphorus.

The Phænomena of the Æolipile.

Experiments to diſtinguiſh Motion and Velocity.

——to demonſtrate a Vacuum.

——to ſhew that a Guinea and a Feather will fall equally faſt, in a Place void of Air.

——to ſhew that there is a great deal more Vacuity than Matter in Bodies.

Lecture the Second.

EXperiments concerning the Centers of Gravity, Magnitude and Motion.

——a rolling Lamp.

A mechanical way of finding the Center of Gravity.

An eaſy Mathematical way of finding it in ſeveral Bodies.

Experiments concerning the common Center of Gravity of two Bodies.

—— concerning the Center of Gravity of a Balance.

——to ſhew the Effects of Mechanical Engines in general.

Lecture the Third.

EXperiments concerning the Line of Direction of a Power, and that of a Weight.

——concerning the Diſtance of a Power, or Weight.

——to illuſtrate the Suppoſitions neceſſary for underſtanding the Effect of Mechanical Powers.

A heavy Body made to roll upwards by its own Gravity.

A heavy Body, which of it ſelf would fall from a Table, hinder'd from falling by adding a heavier Body to it.

Two other Ways of making the Experiment.

Experiments about the falling, rolling, and ſliding of heavy Bodies.

Lecture the Fourth.

THE Steel-yard, or Stiliard, ſhewn and explain'd.

Experiments concerning the Ballance.

——the ſeveral Kinds of Leavers.

——Pullies ſingle or variouſly combin'd.

Upper and lower Pulleys reduc'd to Leavers.

An Experiment to ſhew what Quantity of Friction there is in any Machine.

Lecture the Fifth.

EXperiments concerning the Axel in the Wheel.

——to ſhew the Force of Air on Wind-mill Sails.

Experiments to ſhew the Force of Air on the Sails of a Ship.

——to ſhew the Force of Water on Over-ſhot or Under-ſhot Wheels.

——on the Oars or Rudder of a Ship.

——concerning the Wedge.

——concerning the Screw.

Compound Engines.

Lecture the Sixth.

EXperiments to ſhew how Horſes or Oxen may draw with the greateſt advantage.

——In what caſes Coaches or Carriages ought to have all great, or all ſmall Wheels, or great and ſmall Wheels.

How to match Horſes of unequal Strengths, ſo that they ſhall draw equally.

Sir Iſaac Newton's firſt Law of Motion prov'd by Experiments.

The Combination of ſeveral Forces, whoſe Effect is exerted in one right Line.

The Reſolution of a Force into ſeveral others of different Directions.

Lecture the Seventh.

SHews how the Mechanical Powers may be ſo applied to human Bodies, that a Man of moderate Strength may perform all the Feats done by thoſe that call themſelves Strong Men or Sampſons.

Lecture the Eighth.

A Great Weight lifted by blowing into a Chain of Bladders; and the Manner of Muſcular Motion ſhewn from it.

A Curvilinear Motion produc'd by the Combination of Forces acting in Right Lines.

The Motion of Projectiles.

The Centripetal and Centrifugal Force of a Solid or Fluid in Motion.

An heavy Body made to riſe, and a lighter to deſcend, by means of a Centrifugal Force given to the heavy Body.

Experiments to ſhew what Motion a Body will have, when its Centrifugal Force is equal to, greater, or leſs than its Force of Gravity.

——that any Veſſel will hold Water with the Mouth downwards, if a Centrifugal Force be given to the ſaid Veſſel.

Cork made to deſcend in Water.

Oil made to deſcend in Water.

Sir Iſaac Newton's ſecond Law of Motion prov'd by Experiments.

The Acceleration of the Motion of falling Bodies.

Lecture the Ninth.

EXperiments to ſhew that the Gravitation towards any attracting Body encreaſes as the Squares of the Diſtances from it decreaſe.

——that

——— that Light and Heat encreaſe and decreaſe after the ſame manner.

The Doctrine of Projectiles applied to the Moon's Motion.

The Motion of the Planets round the Sun explain'd.

Experiments to ſhew what Velocities Planets muſt move with, to be kept from falling into the Sun.

———to remove the Objections againſt the Motion of the Earth.

———to ſhew that the Planets cannot move in Carteſius's Vortices.

Lecture the Tenth.

EXperiments concerning Bodies on inclin'd Plains, in order to explain the Doctrine of Pendulums.

———on different Pendulous Bodies.

———to illuſtrate ſome of Sir Iſaac Newton's Propoſitions, whereby the Analogy between the Strings of a Pendulum and the Waves of the Sea, is made out.

A Mechanical way of deſcribing a Cycloid.

The way to make Pendulums vibrate in a Cycloid.

Experiments to ſhew, that Pendulum Clocks cannot go well at Sea.

Lecture the Eleventh.

SIR Iſaac Newton's Third Law of Motion prov'd by Experiments.

Swimming and Flying accounted for.

The Reaſon of the Tide explain'd.

An artificial way of ſhewing the Phaſes of the Moon.

———of ſhewing the manner of Eclipſes.

Lecture the Twelfth.

THE common Phænomena of the Loadſtone.

Some new Properties of the Loadſtone lately diſcover'd by Doctor Brook Taylor.

Some other new Experiments of the Loadſtone.

Electrical Experiments.

Vitreous Phoſphori, or Light produc'd by rubbing an exhauſted Globe of Glaſs.

Lecture the Thirteenth.

EXperiments concerning the Congreſs of heavy Bodies.

Several Experiments to illuſtrate Elaſticity.

Experiments concerning a Lachryma, or Glaſs-Drop.

Nine Experiments concerning the Congreſs of Elaſtick Bodies.

Lecture the Fourteenth.

THE Nature of Fluids explain'd.

Experiments to ſhew that Water weighs in Water.

———that Air weighs in Air.

———that the upper Parts of Fluids preſs upon the lower.

———that Fluids preſs upwards, downwards, ſideways, or in any Direction, according to their Height.

——— that it is upon this Principle that Lead, or any Mettal ſwims in Water, and is even raiſed up.

———that a Body lighter than a Fluid will be kept down, and even depreſs'd by it.

———that different Fluids preſs upon each other, viz. the lighter upon the heavier, and the heavier upon the lighter.

——— that the Preſſure of a Fluid upon the bottom of a Veſſel, is according to the Height of the ſaid Veſſel, be the Top wide or narrow.

Lecture the Fifteenth.

EXperiments to ſhew, that upon the Principles laid down, a Pint of Water will preſs as ſtrongly upon the ſliding Bottom of a large Braſs Barrel, as 8, 10 or more Gallons.

———that any great Weight may be rais'd by the Force of a Man's Lungs, if the Hole in which he blows be leſſen'd in the ſame Proportion as the Surface that acts upon the Weight is encreas'd.

———where a Barrel tapp'd in any determinate Place will ſpout.

———how high, and why Water will naturally riſe in Fountains.

———that oblique Jets of Water are analogous to Projectiles.

——— the beſt way of making Ajutages, or ſpouting Pipes for Fountains.

Lecture the Sixteenth.

EXperiments to ſhew what Proportion the Expence of Water from any Pipe bears to the Height of its Reſervatory, and to the Diameter of the Pipe of Conduct.

Water-Clocks.

———to ſhew how the ſpecifick Gravity of Bodies may be found, whether they ſink or ſwim in Water.

———that Bodies of equal Weight in the Air weigh differently in Water, and differently in a Vacuum.

The Hydrometer, or Water-Poiſe.

The Phænomena of Glaſs-Bubbles.

Lecture the Seventeenth.

THE Hydroſtatical Balance.

Suction and Syphons explain'd.

Sucking, Forcing, and Lifting Pumps.

A Model of Captain Savery's Engine for raiſing Water by Fire.

Lecture the Eighteenth.

THE Diver's Bell.

The Aſcent of Fluids in ſmall Tubes.

The ſame in compreſs'd Air.

The ſame in Vacuo.

The Aſcent of Fluids between two Glaſs Planes in the Shape of an Hyperbola.

Several ſorts of Fountains.

Lecture the Nineteenth.

EXperiments to ſhew the Nature of the Air in general.

———that its Spring is equal to its Weight, and its Denſity to its Compreſſion.

———that

—— that its Preſſure is different at different Heights from the Surface of the Earth.

Its Effects in Cupping.

How to find readily what Quantity of Air preſſes upon Bodies at any time.

Lecture the Twentieth.

SEveral ſorts of Barometers, Thermometers and Hygrometers.

An artificial Storm, to ſhew how the Mercury in the Barometer is affected in ſtormy Weather.

Lecture the Twenty firſt.

THE Air-Pump and its Parts ſhewn and explain'd.

Several Experiments which directly ſhew the Preſſure of the Air.

Other Experiments, which ſhew that ſeveral Phænomena cou'd not be without the Preſſure of the Air.

Lecture the Twenty ſecond.

SEveral Experiments made by the Air-Pump, to ſhew the Expanſion of Air by its Spring.

Others to ſhew the Effects of the Spring of the Air in the Pores of Bodies, when the Weight of the Atmoſphere is taken off of them.

Phoſphorus, Fire, and Flame in Vacuo.

Gunpowder fir'd in Vacuo.

Lecture the Twenty third.

THE Colliſion of Flint and Steel in Vacuo.

Sound diminiſh'd by the Rarefaction of the Air.

An Inſtrument to make the Vibrations of a Bell viſible.

The Effect of Air, differently burn'd, upon Animals.

Animals in Vacuo.

A Wind-Gun.

Lecture the Twenty fourth.

EXperiments made in a Condenſing Engine.

An Experiment to ſhew, That as great a Weight is requir'd to draw Two Braſs Hemiſpheres aſunder, when the Denſity of the Air on the outſide of 'em is doubled (tho' the Air between 'em be of the ſame Tenour with the common Air) as when there is a Vacuum made between them.

Another Experiment ſhewing, Thas if the Air in the Veſſel containing the ſaid Hemiſpheres, be made three times more denſe than the Air between 'em, they will require twice as much Weight to draw 'em aſunder.

A Bottle broken by Condenſing the Air on the outſide of it.

Sound encreas'd by Condenſing the Air.

Phoſphorus put out by Condenſing the Air.

Four or Five more Experiments in this Engine.

Lecture the Twenty fifth.

EXperiments to ſhew the Nature and Motion of Rays of Light.

——to ſhew Vision in general.

——why a Picture is the Repreſentation of Objects.

Principles of Perſpective.

An Engine for taking a true Draught of a Plan without any Skill in deſigning.

Lecture the Twenty ſixth.

CAtroptical Principles explain'd by ſeveral Experiments on Plane, Convex and Concave Mirrors.

——on Convex and Concave Cylindric Mirrors.

The ſeveral Reflections from the two Surfaces of Looking glaſſes conſider'd.

Lecture the Twenty ſeventh.

EXperiments to ſhew the manner of Refraction.

A Multiplying Glaſs.

Experiments on Convex Glaſſes.

The Dark Chamber.

The Magick Lantern.

Lecture the Twenty eighth.

EXperiments to ſhew, by the help of Threads, how Rays paſs thro' Concave and Convex Glaſſes.

——that a Piece of Money in a Glaſs of Water appears bigger and double.

The Diſſection of the Eye.

An Inſtrument to ſhew the manner of Viſion.

The portable Camera Obſcura.

The Faults of Viſion ſhew'd by an Inſtrument.

Experiments to ſhew how the Myopes or Presbytæ may be help'd.

Lecture the Twenty ninth.

EXperiments on a Concave Lens.

——to ſhew how to find the Focus of a Lens, and whether it be truly Center'd.

A Meniſcus Glaſs.

An aerial Speculum.

Experiments to ſhew the Difference between Looking and Seeing.

——why Beams ſeem to dart from a Candle.

——to make Two Candles ſeem but One.

——to ſhew why both Eyes ſee things only ſingle.

Lecture the Thirtieth.

Several Kinds of Microſcopes and Teleſcopes.

Lecture the Thirty firſt.

SIR Iſaac Newton's Theory of Light and Colours prov'd by his Experiments.

Lecture the Thirty ſecond.

THE ſame Theory prov'd alſo by ſome new Experiments to be made by Candle-light.

Every Subſcriber is to pay Two Guineas and a Half; One Guinea at the Time of Subſcription, and the Remainder when the Courſe begins, viz. on the Day of 17 at Six in the Evening.

A COLLECTION OF Excellent Engliſh Books,

Conſiſting of Divinity, Philology, Hiſtory, Miſcellanies, &c. many of them large Paper guilt and near 100 Volumes in Turkey Leather.

Being the Library of the Moſt Reverend Father in God, Dr. Tillotſon, late Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

Which will be ſold by Auction, at Mrs. Bourn's Coffee-Houſe adjoyning to St. Laurence's Church near Guild-hall, on Tueſday the 23d. of April, 1695, at three afternoon, and the days following, at the ſame time till all be ſold.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. THE higheſt Bidder is the Buyer, &c.

2. The Books for ought we know are perfect, if any appear otherwiſe before they are taken away, the Buyer has his choice of taking or leaving them.
